The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Greeneville
Congregational church was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs.
John' McWilliams of Prospect street.
The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Samuel Lathrop. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. The flower committee reported sending flowers to the hospital and other committees made favorable reports. It was decided to hold a food sale in the near future in the Sunday school rooms.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Scott of Prospect street.

Small Fire on North Main Street. The smell of smoke Wednesday af-ternoon at No. 487 North Main street attracted the attention of Albert H. Marsh, who lives in the upper tene-ment and when he investigated he found that it came from the tenement below where the woman of the house had gone out leaving two small chil-dren alone.

had gone out leaving two small charden alone.

In some way, presumably from mice gnawing matches, a pile of rags had been set on fire and was smoldering, filling the tenement with dense smoke. The children were gotten out by men whom Mr. Marsh notified and the fire in the smoldering rags was extinguished.

STONINGTON MAN FOR SENATOR

Attorney Benjamin H. Hewitt Nominated by Republicans-20th District Convention-Elected by Acclamation-Marion R. Davis Presided—Candidate Predicts Success of State Ticket This Year.

Marion R. Davis of East Lyme was the presiding officer for the republican senatorial convention of the 20th or Shoestring senatorial district which was held in the town hall at 11 o'clock Thursday morning and which nominated Attorney Benjamin H. Hewitt of C. Hoxle, Edward H. McCall, George Stonington for the senatorial candi-date from the district. His name was the only one presented before the convention.

Nearly 40 delegates were in attendance from the 16 towns which comprise the district, and Calvin A. Snyder of North Stonington was chosen clerk.
Eli Gledhill of Stonington presented the name of Attorney Hewitt when nominations were called for, making reference to his qualifications for the office in a highly complimentary man-ner. The nomination was made unan-imous after it had been seconded. After an interval, the committee named to notify Mr. Hewitt brought him into the hall, where he was greeted with loud applause. He accepted the nomination and told the convention that he thanked them for the honor and that he would do his utmost to win. He spoke of the ad-mirable state ticket that the republicans have presented before the voters and discussed some of the state issues and said he felt sure that all the re-Ladies' Aid- Society of Greeneville cans have presented before the voters and discussed some of the state issues and said he felt sure that all the republicans on the state ticket would be elected in November.

When the convention adjourned the delegates accepted Mr. Hewitt's invitation to take dinner with him at the Wauregan house.

Defore adjournment, the senatorial committee was chosen as follows:
Samuel N. Hyde of Lebanon, James Cooper of Stonington and Lee Brockway of Lyme.

Celebrate Columbus Day.

A number of members of White Cross council, No. 13, K. of C., and their friends are planning to observe Columbus day by a trip Monday to the Bay View house at Miantic, where a clambake will be served. Before they start Monday morning the party is to o'clock. It is probable that a number will go by automobile, while others will travel by trolley all the way, or else trolley to New London and go from there by auto.
